

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the twelfth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1825.

5 George IV – Chapter 22

An Act to defray the Travelling Expenses of the Provincial Judge for the Inferior District of Gaspé in his Circuit for holding the General Sessions of the Peace for the said District. (22d March, 1825.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WHEREAS it is expedient to appropriate a certain sum of money for defraying the travelling expences of the Provincial Judge of the Inferior District of Gaspé in his Circuit for holding the Courts of Quarter Sessions in the said Inferior District; the Situation of the settlements and the difficulty of the communications in the said District rendering the said Circuit, expensive. May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be if enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled; "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Person Administering the Government of the Province for the time being by a Warrant or Warrants under his hand, to advance and pay from and out of any unappropriated monies that now are or hereafter, may come into the hands of the Receiver-General of the Province for the time being, the sum of ninety pounds sterling for defraying the travelling expenses of the Provincial Judge of the Inferior District of Gaspé in his circuit for holding the terms of the General Sessions of the Peace for the said Inferior District of Gaspé for the present year, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the money appropriated by this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall be pleased to direct.
