

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the twelfth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1825.

5 George IV – Chapter 8

An Act to appropriate a sum of money therein mentioned for re-printing certain Laws in force in this Province. (22d. March, 1825.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

Whereas it is expedient to appropriate a sum of money towards defraying the expenses which it is necessary to incur for reprinting the Ordinances of the Legislative Council of the late Province of Quebec, now in force in this Province May it therefore please our Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province for the time being by a Warrant or Warrants under his hand to advance and pay out of the unappropriated funds in the hands of the Receiver-General of the Province, a sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole, the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds currency, towards defraying the necessary expences of reprinting under the direction of such person as he shall appoint for that purpose a sufficient number of copies of such Ordinances of the Legislative Council of the late Province of Quebec, as are actually in force in this Province. Provided always that the titles of such Ordinances as have been repealed or that are expired shall be mentioned, with the dates of the several enactments and continuances, and of their expiration and such other special matter relating to the same respectively, as shall be deemed essential or necessary.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies hereby appropriated shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being in such manner and form as his Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall be pleased to direct.
