C A P. XVIII.

AN Act authorizing a certain sum of money therein-mentioned, to be refunded to John S. Baldwin and Julius Quesnel.

(7th March, 1827.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient and just that a certain sum of money paid by John S. Baldwin and Julius Quesnel, as duties under an Act passed in the fifty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Third, chapter eleven, should be refunded to them, the same having been paid contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America;" and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Person administering the Government of the Province, for the time being, by Warrant under his hand, to refund out of the unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver-General of the Province, the sum of two hundred and seventy-four pounds, fourteen shillings and four pence, currency to the said John S. Baldwin and Julius Quesnel, being for so much exacted from and paid by them as duties under an Act passed in the fifty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Third, chapter eleven, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Act.

C A P. XIX.

AN ACT to exempt Septuagenary Persons from Imprisonment for debts, in certain cases.

(7th March, 1827.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enact that Septuagenary persons should be exempt from imprisonment for debts: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America;" and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that no person having attained, or who hereafter shall attain the seventieth year of his or her age, arrested or liable to be arrested for any debt contracted in this Province at the time of the passing of this Act, or hereafter to be contracted in the same, shall be detained or imprisoned by reason of any such debt, any Law or Ordinance to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. Provided always, that nothing herein-contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt any person or persons having obtained such age as aforesaid, from being detained and imprisoned in satisfaction of any judgment or condemnation in damages rendered or to be rendered in any Court of competent Jurisdiction in this Province, in suits or actions for personal wrongs proper to be compensated in damages, or who may have fraudulently conveyed away or secreted his or their property, or who may be indebted as Tutor, Curator, Sequestrator, Depository, Sheriff, Coroner, Bailiff or other Officer having charge of Public monies, or be a caution judiciaire, or indebted for the purchase money of any Lands, or Tenements, Goods or Chattels sold and adjudged under the authority of Justice, by Licitation, Décrét forcé, Décrét volontaire, or otherwise.

No septuagenary persons to be liable to arrest or imprisonment.

Proviso.
