

C A P. XXVII.

AN Act to enable the Trustees for building the Parsonage House at Saint Michel de Vaudreuil, to recover the amount assessed on certain Parishioners as a contribution towards the expense thereof.

[25th February, 1832.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, a Parsonage House was erected in the Parish of Saint Michel de Vaudreuil, the expense of building which ought to be borne by the Parishioners of the said Parish, and that a want of power in the Commissioners for building and repairing Churches, Parsonages and Burial-grounds within the District of Montreal, to ratify the distribution made by the Trustees for superintending the building of the said Parsonage House, has defeated every endeavour of the said Trustees to levy the entire amount thereby apportioned to the Parishioners respectively for defraying the expense of building the said Parsonage House, whereby the said Trustees, having out of their own monies, advanced to Jean Baptiste Lalonde, the contractor for erecting the said building, the sum required for completing the payment of the monies by them agreed to be paid in consideration of the work and materials, care and diligence by him applied in and about the fulfilment of his contract,—are deprived of their recourse against the Parishioners for the recovery of the monies by them so advanced, and that it is expedient to afford the said Trustees the benefit of a legal remedy in the premises: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America," and "to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;"—And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that a certain distribution of the expense to be borne by the Parishioners of the Parish of Saint Michel de Vaudreuil in the District of Montreal for the building of a certain Parsonage House which was erected there in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, which distribution was made by André Chevrier the elder, Joseph Charlebois and Narcisse Valois, Trustees appointed to superintend the building of the said Parsonage House, and on the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixteen was ratified by the Commissioners for building and repairing Churches, Parsonages and Burial Grounds, within the District of Montreal, is hereby ratified and confirmed, and made binding upon all the persons in such distribution named and their legal representatives for the several sums therein respectively apportioned to every such person, and from the date thereof.

II.

A distribution of the expenses of building a Parsonage House in the Parish of Saint Michel de Vaudreuil confirmed, and binding on all persons concerned.

The Trustees who have made the distribution may institute an action for the recovery of such portion for which any persons may have been apportioned.
 Proviso.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for the said André Chevrier the elder, Joseph Charlebois and Narcisse Valois, Trustees as aforesaid, and their legal representatives, to institute in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench for the said District of Montreal, and conduct to final judgment and execution, all such suits and actions at law, as shall be necessary for the recovery from any person in the said distribution mentioned, his heirs and legal representatives, of any sum of money apportioned to him in the said distribution for the purpose aforesaid; Provided always that no such action shall be maintained against any person now holding by any other title than that of descent, grant or donation, any of the land upon which the several sums of money required by the said distribution to be paid, were by the said Trustees apportioned, unless the person against whom such action shall be brought be named in the said distribution.

Public Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act and as such shall be judically taken notice of by all Judges and others without being specially pleaded.

C A P. XXVIII.

AN Act to appropriate certain sums of money for establishing a Depot of Provisions near Cape Chat for the relief of shipwrecked persons and for other purposes.

[25th February, 1832.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN.

Preamble.

WHEREAS shipwrecks on uninhabited places along the shores of the River Saint Lawrence below Cape Chat, frequently occur, and whereas for the relief of the sufferers in such shipwrecks, it is expedient to establish a Depôt of Provisions at the small settlement at the River Sainte Anne below Cape Chat and a similar Depôt at the Light House on Pointe des Monts, under the care of persons who in cases of need shall render assistance to mariners in distress and other shipwrecked persons; and to reimburse certain monies advanced by Robert Noel Lindsay, for the purchase of provisions for certain shipwrecked persons: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled
