

C A P. XLVIII.

An Act to appropriate a certain sum of money for obtaining Historical Documents relating to the early times of Canada.

[25th February, 1832.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that as many Historical Documents respecting the early times of Canada as it is possible now to procure, should be collected, and that it is expedient to grant a certain sum of money to promote the said object: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North-America," and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government of this Province, by a warrant under his hand, to authorize the advance of a sum not exceeding three hundred pounds currency, out of any unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver General, to the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, to enable them to obtain and publish Historical Documents relating to the early times of Canada.

£300 granted for obtaining Historical Documents of the early History of Canada.

Every person to make up detailed accounts of the expenditure of the monies appropriated by this Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person to whom shall be entrusted the expenditure of any portion of the monies hereby appropriated, shall make up detailed accounts of such expenditure, showing the sum advanced to the Accountant, the sum actually expended, the balance, if any, remaining in his hands, and the amount of the monies hereby appropriated to the purpose for which such advance shall have been made, remaining unexpended in the hands of the Receiver General, and that every such account shall be supported by Vouchers therein distinctly referred to, by numbers corresponding to the numbering of the Items in such account, and shall be made up to and closed on the tenth day of April and tenth day of October in each year, during which such expenditure shall be so made, and shall be attested before a Justice of the Court of King's Bench or a Justice of the Peace, and shall be transmitted to the Officer whose duty it shall be to receive such account, within fifteen days next after the expiration of the said periods respectively.

III.

Application of the money expended to be accounted for to His Majesty and a detailed account to be laid before the Legislature.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies appropriated by this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall direct, and that a detailed account of the expenditure of all such monies shall be laid before the several branches of the Provincial Legislature, within the first fifteen days of the next Session thereof.

C A P. XLIX.

AN Act to appropriate certain sums of money for ascertaining the practicability of ensuring the annual formation of an Ice Bridge from Quebec to the South Shore, in the manner proposed by John Le Breton, and for remunerating him in the event of his success therein.

[25th February, 1832.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN:

Preamble.

WHEREAS the inhabitants of the City of Quebec and neighbouring parts, are greatly benefitted by receiving an increased supply of produce whenever the River Saint Lawrence is frozen over, between Quebec and the opposite South Shore, so as to afford for some weeks together a safe communication between the two shores; and that it has been represented by John Le Breton, Esquire, that he has devised a mode by which the formation of an Ice Bridge, capable of affording the means of such communication can be effected annually, and that it is expedient to ascertain the efficacy of the mode by which it is proposed to attain a result which would prove so extensively beneficial to the inhabitants of the City of Quebec, and neighbouring parts;—May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's Most Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's "Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North-America," and to make further provision for the "Government of the said Province; And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province, by a warrant or warrants under his hand and £300 granted and to be put in the hands.
