

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the fourteenth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1832.

2 William IV – Chapter 14

An Act to appropriate a certain sum of money to defray the expense of the Surveyor's Estimates and Plans of a Canal from Missiskoui Bay to South River. (25th February, 1832.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN.

Whereas it is expedient to appropriate a certain sum of money to defray the costs of the Surveys, Estimates and Plans, of a certain projected Canal from Missiskoui Bay [Saint-Armand] to South River: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth, year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Québec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, by Warrant under his hand to pay or cause to be paid to David Thatcher Rhodes Nye and Anthony Rhodes, of Saint Armand in the County of Missiskoui, out of any unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver General, a sum of money not exceeding one hundred pounds currency, for the purpose of enabling them to defray the expence of making certain Surveys, Estimates and Plains which have been made and prepared by Alexander Stevenson and Robert Lynn, relative to the making of a Canal from Missiskoui Bay in the County of Rouville, to a point on the South River.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies appropriated by this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall direct.
