2 William IV – Chapter 46

An Act to change the place of holding the Election of Members to serve in the Assembly of Lower Canada for the County of Acadie. (25th February, 1832.)

Whereas the place appointed in and by a certain Act passed in the ninth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled, "An Act to make a new and more convenient subdivision of the Province into Counties, for the purpose of effecting a more equal representation thereof in the Assembly than heretofore," for holding the Elections of Members to serve in the Assembly, of Lower Canada for the County of Acadie, is the place called Sainte Marguerite de Blairfindie, which is out of the limits of the said County and that it would be expedient that the said Act should be amended, and that such Elections should henceforth be holden at some convenient place situate within the limits of the said County: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the said Province of Québec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that henceforth the Elections of Members to serve in the Assembly of Lower Canada for the said County of Acadie shall not be holden at the said place called Sainte Marguerite de Blairfindie, but shall be holden in the Village of Napierville in the Parish of Saint Cyprien, in the said County of Acadie, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
