AN ACT to provide for the more effectual Extinction of Secret Incumbrances on Lands, than was heretofore in use in this Province.

(14th March, 1829.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS, to secure the property and possessions of His Majesty's subjects, and to prevent the disturbances and evictions which frequently arise from secret mortgages, unknown to the purchasers of such property and possessions, by which said mortgages, purchasers have been often obliged, after having bona fide paid the prices of such property and possessions, again again to pay large sums of money by reason of such secret mortgages, or to relinquish and give up such property and possessions, it is necessary to establish certain rules and provisions which may reconcile the opposite interests of individuals in this matter ; and for this purpose to establish, in an invariable manner, the order and stability of hypothecs, and to fix a certain and easy course for preserving them, so that on the one hand purchasers of immoveables, whether immoveables real, or immoveables by fiction of law, may make such purchases with confidence and obtain a valid discharge after they shall have paid the price of such immoveables ; and on the other hand, the vendors of such immoveables may, within a known and reasonable time, receive such price or purchase money, without incurring the delays and heavy expenses which have been and are incident to Sheriff's Sales, the only mode of security to which purchasers so circumstanced, have hitherto been able to resort. And whereas also, such Sheriff's Sales are altogether too expensive to be resorted to where the immoveables sold are of small value ; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, " An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America," and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province ;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, all proprietors of immoveables, whether the same be immoveables real or immoveables by fiction of law, having acquired the same by purchase, exchange, licitation, or other title of a nature to transfer property, who are desirous of discharging such immoveables from any hypothec or hypothecs, wherewith they may have been incumbered immediately previous to, and at the time the same were purchased, or otherwise acquired by such person or persons, shall and may obtain a sentence and judgment of confirmation of their purchase or acquisition in the manner hereinafter mentioned, which said sentence or judgment of confirmation shall have the effect of discharging the privileges and hypothecs wherewith such immoveables were incumbered previous to and at the time of such purchase or acquisition as aforesaid, in respect of all, each and every the creditors of the vendors or assignors, and of their predecessors, who shall have neglected to make their opposition in the form and within the time hereinafter prescribed ; and the purchasers or proprietors of such immoveables who shall have obtained such sentence or judgment of confirmation, shall be and remain incommutable proprietors thereof, without being in any manner held or bound for the debts of the preceding proprietors of the same, in any manner

Made authorized to enable purchasers to obtain a more effectual extinction of secret incumbrances on any property required by them manner or under any pretext whatsoever. Provided however, that such sentence or judgment of confirmation shall not have the effect of giving to such purchasers or proprietors in relation to the property, any other or greater real rights, Droits réels fonciers, or servitude, than their vendors had ; it being hereby declared, that the sole effect of such sentence or judgment of confirmation shall be confined to the discharging of privileges and hypothecs, only.
