

C A P. LII.

An Act towards encouraging the Fisheries.

(14th March, 1829.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS for the purpose of encouraging the Fisheries for Cod, Whale and all other Fish which are carried on in the Gulph of Saint Lawrence and elsewhere from the several Ports in this Province, it is expedient to enact that the Merchant, Trader, or other person being dernier équippeur, and providing the necessary outfits and supplies for the voyage, or for the season, or making advances in money towards providing such necessary outfits and supplies, shall have a privilege and be paid out of the returns of such voyage, or out of the proceeds thereof, in preference to all other creditors, (seamen and servants employed in such voyage alone excepted) of the person or persons having by means of such outfits and supplies, or advances therefor, undertaken or performed such voyage in prosecution of the fishery of cod and whale, or of any other fish; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, " An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America," and for making further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Merchant Trader, or other person who-soever becoming dernier équippeur, and as such providing the outfits and supplies necessary to enable the person or persons undertaking a voyage in prosecution of the fishery of cod, whale or other fish to the gulf of Saint Lawrence, the coast of Labrador, Straits of Belisle, or Banks of Newfoundland, to perform such voyage; or making advances in money for the purpose of procuring such necessary outfits and supplies, shall have a privilege for the recovery thereof, and shall recover and be paid the amount of such money advanced, or value of such outfits and supplies in preference to all others, (the seamen or servants employed in such voyage alone excepted,) from and out of the return of such voyages for and towards which such monies shall have been advanced, or such outfits and supplies shall have been provided or furnished, as aforesaid; or from the proceeds of the said returns in case of the seizure and sale thereof by any other creditor.
