

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the thirteenth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1829.

9 George IV – Chapter 64

An Act to appropriate a certain sum of Money, to indemnify the third Arbitrator appointed for adjusting the proportion of the Revenue appertaining to Upper-Canada. (14th March, 1829.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

Whereas it is expedient to appropriate a certain sum of Money, to indemnify William Maitland of London, Esquire, for his disbursements, as third Arbitrator for regulating the proportion of the Revenues appertaining to Upper-Canada; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and for making further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province for the time being, to pay by Warrant or Warrants under his hand, a sum not exceeding ninety pounds sterling, out of the unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver General of the Province, to indemnify the said William Maitland, of London, Esquire, for his disbursements, as third Arbitrator for regulating the proportion of the Revenues appertaining to Upper-Canada.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the aforesaid sum of money shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall be pleased to direct.
