same, in such penal sum or sums of money, as by the majority of the said Society, at any such meeting as aforesaid, shall be thought expedient and to the satisfaction of the majority of the said Society: and that every such bond or security to be given by and on the behalf of such Treasurer or Treasurers, Trustee or Trustees or other officer, shall be given to the President and Vice-President of the said Society for the time being, and to their successors in office, a copy of which bond or security, shall be filed with the Prothonotaries of the said Court of King's Bench, and in case of forfeiture, it shall be lawful to sue upon such bond or security, in the names of such President and Vice-President for the time being, to and for the use of the said Society.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Society shall and may from time to time, elect and appoint any number of the members of the said Society, not less than nine, to be a Committee, and shall and may delegate to such Committee all or any of the powers given by this Act to be executed, who being so delegated, shall continue to act as such Committee, for and during such time as shall be appointed: and in all cases where a standing Committee shall be appointed for the said Society, for general purposes, the powers of such Committee shall be first declared in and by the rules, orders and regulations of the said Society, confirmed by the said Court of King's Bench, and filed in the manner herein-before directed, and in all cases where a Committee shall be appointed for any particular purpose or purposes, the powers delegated to such Committee shall be reduced into writing, and entered into a book by the Secretary or Clerk of the said Society, and five of the members of such Committee at least, shall at all times be necessary to concur in any act of such Committee, and such Committee shall in all things delegated to them, act for and in the name of the said Society, and all acts and orders of such Committee, under the powers delegated to them, shall have the like force and effect as the acts, and orders of the said Society at any General Meeting thereof, could, or might have had, in pursuance of this Act. Provided always, that the transactions of such Committee shall be, from time to time, and at all times, subject and liable to the review, allowance, or disallowance and controul of the said Society, in such manner and form as the said Society, shall by their general rules, orders and regulations, confirmed by the said Court of King's Bench, and filed as aforesaid, have directed and appointed, or shall in like manner direct and appoint.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Society, to lay out and dispose of all such sums of money as have been collected, or which may hereafter be collected and paid, to and for the beneficial ends, intents and purposes of the said Society, the immediate application or expenditure of which is not required for the exigencies of the said Society, upon such securities as are herein-after specified which, securities shall be taken in the names of the President and Vice-President of the said Society for the time being, and that the interest and proceeds which shall from time to time arise from the monies so laid out, invested and disposed of as aforesaid, shall from time to time be accounted for by the Treasurer or Treasurers, and be applied to and for the uses of the said Society, according to the rules, orders and regulations thereof.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall not be lawful to or for the said Society or any Committee thereof, to place out at interest any sum or sums of money belonging to the said Society, unless the person or persons to whom the same shall be so lent or advanced, shall well and effectually secure the repayment of such monies so to be lent, and the accruing interest thereof, by a mortgage or mortgages on immeubles or real property, (which immeubles or real property, shall be producing rents or profits at the time of such advance or loan,) exceeding in value the money to be lent, and unless the party or parties to whom such advances shall be so made, shall procure a co-surety who shall enter into an obligation jointly and severally, with the party or parties to whom such advance shall be made, for securing the payment of all such monies and the accruing interest thereof.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the President and Vice-President, Trustee or Trustees for the time being, and all other officers of the said Society, who shall have received or shall receive any of the monies, effects or funds of the Society, or who shall in any manner have been intrusted with the disposal, management or custody thereof, or of any securities relating to the same, his or their executors, curators, administrators or assigns respectively, shall, upon demand made in pursuance of any order of the said Society, or of the Committee to be appointed as aforesaid, for that purpose, give in his or their account or accounts at a general meeting of the said Society, or to such Committee thereof, as aforesaid, to be examined and allowed or disallowed, and shall, on the like demand, pay over all the monies remaining in his or their hands, and assign and transfer or deliver all securities, effects or funds taken or standing in his or their name or names, as aforesaid, or being in his or their hands, custody or power, to the President and Vice-President, or Trustee or Trustees for the time being, or to such person or persons as the said Society shall appoint; and in case of any neglect or refusal to deliver such account or to pay over such monies, or to assign, transfer, or deliver such securities or funds in manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Society, in the name Of the President and Vice-President, or Trustee or Trustees, as the case may be, to present a Petition to such of the Courts of King's Bench, within and for the Province of Lower-Canada, within whose jurisdiction the party or parties against whom such Petition is to be presented may reside; which Court shall proceed thereupon and make such order thereon, after hearing all parties concerned, as to such Court shall appear just; and such Court shall in case of disobedience of any order or orders to be pronounced on the hearing of such petition or petitions, issue an Attachment or Prise de Corps, against the party or parties disobeying any such order or orders, and all assignments and transfers made in pursuance of such order, shall be good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that if any person appointed to any office by the said Society, and being entrusted with or having in his hands or possession any monies or effects belonging to the said Society, or any securities relating to the same, shall die or become a bankrupt or insolvent, his executors or administrators, assignee or assignees, or the trustee or trustees, curator or curators of his estate or effects, shall within forty days after demand, made by the order of the said Society, or of the majority of the members thereof, present at a meeting thereof, deliver over all things belonging to the said Society, to such person or persons as the said Society shall appoint.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all Monies, Goods and Chattels, and all transferable Securities and Effects whatever belonging to the said Society, shall be vested in the President and Vice President for the time being, for the use and benefit of the said Society, and from and after the decease or removal of the President or Vice President, shall vest in the succeeding President and Vice President, for the same Estate and Interest as his or their predecessors had therein, and be subject to the same Trust without any Assignment or Transfer whatever; and also, shall for all purposes of action or suit as well Criminal as Civil in Law, or in Equity, in any wise touching or concerning the same, be deemed and be taken to be and shall in every such proceeding, where necessary, be stated to be the property of the person or persons appointed to the Office of President and Vice-President of the said Society for the time being, in his or their proper name or names; and such person or persons so appointed, shall, and they are hereby respectively authorised to bring or defend, or cause to be brought or defended, any Action, Suit or Prosecution, Criminal as well as Civil, touching or concerning such Monies, Goods and Chattels or Effects belonging to the said Society, and such Person or Persons so appointed, shall and may in all cases concerning the Property of the said Society, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in his or their proper name or names, without other description, and no such Suit, Action or Prosecution shall be discontinued or abate by the death or removal of such person or persons from the said Office of President or Vice-President as aforesaid, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by the succeeding President and Vice-President, in the proper name or names of the persons commencing the same, any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall nor be lawful for the said Society by any rule, order or regulation at any general meeting or otherwise, to dissolve or determine the said Society, or to distribute the stock or funds of the same, (otherwise than for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Society, declared by them in the rules, orders and regulations confirmed by the Court of King's Bench for the District of Quebec as aforesaid, according to the directions of this Act,) without the consent and approbation of four-fifths of all the Members of the said Society, and every Member of the said Society then being within this Province, shall be notified in writing, by the proper and competent Officer thereof, of every proposal or motion for such dissolution, determination and distribution of the stock or fund of the said Society, as soon as the said proposal or motion shall have been made; which said proposal or motion shall not be voted upon, until six months after such notice shall have been given.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all the rules, orders and regulations from time to time made, ordained and constituted by the said Society in the manner directed by this Act, shall be forthwith entered into a Book or Books to be kept by the Secretary, or such person or persons, Members of the said Society, who shall be appointed for that purpose, in which Books shall be entered the Appointments of all Officers and the state of the funds of the said Society from time to time, as well those in the hands of their Treasurer or other Officer as those which shall be in any other hands whatsoever, and shall be signed by the said Members and all others who shall hereafter become Members thereof, and shall be open at every Quarterly Meeting for the inspection of any and every Member of the said Society, and all such rules, orders and regulations so entered and signed, shall be deemed original orders, and shall be received in evidence, as such, in all disputes, and in all trials before the said Court of King's Bench.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Society to receive donations entre vifs, or legacies of moveable or Personal Property from any person or persons, for the support and increase of their said stock or fund, and all such sum or sums of money shall be applicable to the general purposes of the said Society in like manner as the contributions of the several Members of the said Society are or shall be directed to be applied by virtue of this Act, and shall not be applied in any other manner.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no fines to be imposed under the authority of this Act, shall be enforced, nor shall any proceedings be had, to compel payment of the same until the imposition of such Fines shall have been approved and confirmed among the other orders, rules and regulations of the said Society by the said Court of King's Bench, and all such fines, when and as the same shall be levied and received, shall be paid into the hands of His Majesty's Receiver General, and shall remain at the disposal of the Provincial Legislature for the public uses of the Province, and shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall direct.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices of the Peace and other persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

XVI. And it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall continue and be in force until the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one and no longer.
