

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the third session of the fourteenth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: John Carleton Fisher & William Kemble, Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 16

An Act to amend and extend a certain part of An Act passed in the first year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter eight, relative to the Internal Communications. (3d April, 1833)

Whereas by the first Section of An Act passed in the first year of His Majesty's Reign, chapter eight, intituled, "An Act to appropriate certain sums of money therein mentioned, for the improvement of the Internal Communications of the Province," a certain sum of money was appropriated for erecting a Bridge over the River Saint Anne, in the County of Champlain, and whereas the said Bridge has not yet been erected, and whereas by the eleventh Section of the said Act it is enacted, that after the expiration of two years from, the passing of the said Act, no contract shall be entered into, nor any work commenced under the authority thereof, and that such part or balance of the monies thereby appropriated as shall not be expended after the payment of all sums due on contracts entered into, or for days work performed under the authority thereof, shall remain at the future disposal of the Provincial Legislature, and. whereas it would be expedient to extend the term fixed by the said Act in so far as relates to the said Bridge: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the term fixed by the eleventh Section of the Act above cited, passed in the first year of His Majesty's Reign, chapter eight shall be and is hereby extended until the expiration of two years from the time of the passing of this Act, in so far only as relates to the erection of the Bridge over the River Sainte Anne, and without derogating in any other manner whatsoever from the provisions of the said Act.

II. Provided always and be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the site of the said Bridge shall be determined by the majority of the Freeholders resident in the said Parish, at a meeting to be called by a public notice posted on the door of the Church of the Parish of Saint Anne, during two consecutive Sundays or Holydays.
