

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the third session of the fourteenth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: John Carleton Fisher & William Kemble, Law Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 7

An Act to amend and extend the Provisions of an Act intituled, “An Act for making a Rail Road from Lake Champlain to the River Saint Lawrence.” (3d April, 1833)

Whereas it is expedient to extend certain provisions of an Act passed in the last Session of the present Parliament, for making a Rail Road from Lake Champlain to the River Saint Lawrence, and to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America;’ and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;” And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, the period within, which the Company of Proprietors shall be bound to construct and complete the said Rail Road, shall be extended to four years from the day of the passing of this Act, instead of the period mentioned in the forty-seventh Section of the said Act; and that the Book and Plan required by the said Act, and which by the provisions of the said Section were to be prepared and deposited of Record, within twelve months after the passing of the Act herein above cited, may be prepared and deposited as aforesaid, at any time before the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty four. Provided that the said Company shall be bound to conform to the provisions of the twelfth Section of the Act herein above cited, within four years from the passing of this Act.
