

Commissioners appointed under Act 3. Will. 4. c. 12, to enable them to pay François Fortier, for certain extra-work performed by him, for building the new Hall of Assembly.

pay to the Commissioners appointed under the authority of the Act passed in the third year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter twelve, intituled, "An Act to provide for the erection of a new Hall of Assembly," a sum not exceeding five hundred and eighteen pounds and seven pence halfpenny currency, to enable the said Commissioners to pay a like sum to the said François Fortier, to indemnify him for certain extra work performed by him about the mason work of the said Hall, over and above that which he was bound to perform by his Contract, and for certain losses by him sustained by reason of the non inclusion in the total sum mentioned in the said Contract, as that for which the said François Fortier bound himself to complete the whole of the mason work of certain items mentioned in the specification and estimate on which the said Contract was founded, but omitted by error in the addition made of the several items of such estimate in order to ascertain the total sum aforesaid.

Commissioners to lay an account of the monies advanced to them before the Legislature.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioners shall lay an account of the monies advanced to them under the authority of this Act and by them disbursed before the three Branches of the Legislature within fifteen days after the opening of the next Session thereof.

Application of the monies to be accounted for to His Majesty.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies hereby appropriated shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors shall be pleased to direct, and that a detailed account of the expenditure of all such monies shall be laid before the three Branches of the Legislature within fifteen days after the opening of the next Session thereof.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to make provision for indemnifying Pilots while detained in Quarantine.

[18th March, 1834.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS considerable loss and inconvenience have been experienced by the Pilots in charge of vessels coming from sea to the Quarantine Station at Grosse Isle, in consequence of the absence of all Legislative enactment to empower them to claim indemnity for the time that they are detained in Quarantine at the place aforesaid:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly

Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the "fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more "effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North Ame- "rica," and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act any Pilot in charge of a vessel arriving in this Province, who shall be detained in Quarantine at Grosse Isle, shall be entitled to ten shillings currency, for every day that he shall be so detained, which sum shall be paid him by the Master or Consignee of such vessel in the same manner as pilotage is now directed by Law to be paid to Pilots for and below the Harbour of Quebec.

Pilots indem-nified for loss of time, while detained in Quarantine.

Continuance of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall continue to be in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and no longer.
