4 William IV – Chapter 36

An Act to appropriate a further sum of money therein-mentioned for enlarging the dimensions of the Locks of the Chambly Canal.

18th March, 1834.—Presented for His Majesty's Assent, and reserved for the signification of His Majesty's Pleasure thereon.

15th August, 1854.—Assented to by His Majesty in Council.

7th January, 1835.—The Royal Assent signified by the Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor in Chief.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN.

Whereas the sum appropriated by the Act hereinafter-mentioned hath been found insufficient to carry the said Act into effect, and it is therefore expedient to make further provision for that purpose:—May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And' it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or person administering the Government, by Warrant under his hand and out of any unappropriated monies in the hands of the Receiver General, to advance and pay to the Commissioners appointed under the authority of a certain Act passed in the third year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, chapter forty-one, such further sum of money not exceeding two thousand four hundred pounds currency, as shall together with the sum appropriated by a certain Act passed in the third year of the Reign of His present Majesty, chapter thirty, and intituled "An Act to authorize the Commissioners of the Chambly Canal, to enlarge the dimensions of the Locks of the said Canal," be sufficient to enable the said Commissioners to carry the said Act into effect and to cause the said Locks to be enlarged to the dimensions therein-mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person to whom shall be entrusted the expenditure of any portion of the monies hereby appropriated, shall make up detailed accounts of such expenditure, showing the sum advanced to the accountant, the sum actually expended, the balance (if any) remaining in his hands and the amount of the monies hereby appropriated to the purpose for which such advance shall have been made remaining unexpended in the hands of the Receiver General, and that every such account shall be supported by vouchers therein distinctly referred to, by numbers corresponding to the numbering of the items in such account, and shall be made up to and closed on the tenth day of April and tenth day of October in each year, during which such expenditure shall be made, and shall be attested before a Justice of the Court of King's Bench or a Justice of the Peace, and shall be transmitted to the Officer whose duty it shall be to receive such account, within fifteen days next after the expiration of the said periods respectively.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies appropriated by this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, his heirs and successors shall direct, and that a detailed account of the expenditure of all such monies shall be laid before the several branches of the Legislature, within the first fifteen days of the next Session thereof.
