

C A P. XXV.

AN ACT for more easily carrying into effect an Act, intituled, “ An Act to authorize the appointment of Commissioners to treat with Commissioners on the part of Upper-Canada, respecting the drawing of a division line between Lower and Upper Canada.”

[21st March, 1836.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS there is an error in Sir Alured Clarke’s Proclamation of the eighteenth November, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, founded on an Order made by His Majesty, in his Privy Council, bearing date in the month of August preceding, on the subject of the Division Line between this Province and the Province of Upper Canada, which error is of a nature to impede the operations of the Commissioners appointed under the Act passed in the first year of His Majesty’s Reign, chapter fifteen, intituled, “ An Act to authorize the appointment of Commissioners to treat with Commissioners on the part of Upper Canada, respecting the drawing of a Division Line between Lower and Upper Canada:—Be it therefore enacted by the King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, “ An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty’s Reign, intituled, “An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America;” And to “ make further provision for the Government of the said Province;” and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Commissioners appointed under the said Act herein first above cited, and the persons appointed to act under them, shall take as the sole basis of their operations in fixing the Division Line between the two Provinces aforesaid, the Boundary Line of the Seigniorie of New Longueuil as far as the most north-westerly point on the said line as the same is established by the original title deeds of the Seigniorie, and by the regular surveys made thereof, any thing in the Proclamation or in the Order in Council hereinabove mentioned, or in any other Law, regulation, or order whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners appointed under former Act and the persons appointed under them in fixing the division line between the two Provinces, to take as the sole basis of their operations, the boundary line of the Seigniorie of New Longueuil as far as the most north-westerly point on the said line.
