regularly entered all goods or effects brought to their respective offices as having been stolen or suspected to be stolen, stating (if the same can be ascertained) from whom they were stolen, received or taken, and the person in whose possession they were found, and the time when, with such other particulars respecting the same, as may be deemed necessary towards proving the theft, or ascertaining the proprietors; and it shall be the duty of the said Clerks of the Peace respectively, to cause a fair copy of all the entries of goods or effects in such book, and which remain unclaimed in their several offices, to be made out and signed by them or any one of them, and laid before the Judges of the Court of King's Bench for Criminal Pleas at every term thereof, and it shall be lawful for the said Judges, or any of them, by a written order addressed to the said Clerks of the Peace, to authorize them to cause such of the said goods and effects as have not been claimed, and the owners whereof are not known, to be sold by Public Auction.

Sales to be publicly advertised.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that such sales shall, previously be publicly advertised in any two of the Newspapers published in either of the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal, as the case may be; (and if in Three-Rivers, in any Newspaper published thereat) three times in the space of one month next after the date of said order or authority to sell, with respect to such merchandize and effects as shall be judged susceptible of deterioration, and three times during six months for such as shall be judged susceptible of being preserved without being spoiled during that time, giving notice of the place where the said goods and effects may be seen, every day (Sundays and Holidays excepted) between the hour of noon and two in the afternoon before the sale, to the end that any person having lost the same, or any part of such merchandize or effects, or being interested therein, may claim them; and in case any of the said goods or effects may on inspection, be claimed by any person or persons as owners thereof, any two Justices of the Peace of the District, on legal proof that the same or any part or parcel of them belong bonâ fide to the person or persons claiming the same as owners, may deliver or order such goods or effects so claimed, to be delivered to the owner or owners thereof, who shall respectively give a receipt or receipts for the same, which receipt or receipts shall be written in the said book of original entry.

Goods, &c. not claimed how to be disposed of.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if such goods and effects be not claimed as above mentioned, the proceeds of the sale thereof (the necessary charges of advertising and selling the same being previously deducted) shall be paid over to the Receiver General, to be at the disposal of the Legislature.

Application of the money how to be accounted for.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of all monies arising from the sale of any such goods and effects as aforesaid, and from this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, his heirs and successors shall be pleased to direct.

Continuance of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act, and all the matters and things herein contained, shall be and continue to be in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty, and no longer.
