

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the Special Council, begun and holden at the City of Quebec, in the said Province of Lower Canada, the twenty-eighth day of June. Quebec: John Carleton Fisher & William Kemble, Law Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, 1838.

2 Victoria – Chapter 5 (Session 2)

An Ordinance to make good two certain sums of money therein mentioned advanced in payment of certain indispensable expenses of the Civil Government of Lower Canada, between the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and the thirty-first day of October of the same year.

Whereas it is necessary to make good two certain amounts supplied by order of His Excellency Sir John Colborne, whilst Administrator of the Government of this Province, and of His Excellency the Governor General thereof, severally and respectively, for the payment of certain indispensable expenses of the Civil Government of Lower Canada, between the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight:—Be it therefore Ordained and Enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council for the affairs of the said Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada;"—And it is hereby Ordained and Enacted by the authority of the same, that from and out of the unappropriated moneys which now are, or shall hereafter come into the hands of the Receiver General of this Province for the time being, there shall be taken and applied the sum of five thousand five hundred and eighty-three pounds, nineteen shillings and ten pence, sterling money, to make good a like sum which was taken and applied for the purposes aforesaid, between the said periods, by order of His Excellency Sir John Colborne, and the sum of eighteen thousand one hundred and thirty-six pounds, seventeen shillings and six pence sterling, to make good a like sum, which was taken and applied for the purposes aforesaid, between the said periods, by order of His Excellency the Governor General.

II. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the application of the said amount of twenty-three thousand seven hundred and twenty pounds, seventeen shillings and four pence sterling, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as the Crown shall direct.
