

The Statutes of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America. Passed in the third session of the fourth provincial parliament of Upper Canada, met at York, on the second day of February, in the forty-seventh Year of the reign of our sovereign Lord George the Third (1807). York: John Cameron, 1809.

47 George III– Chapter 4

An Act to revive and continue an Act passed in the forty-second year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, “An Act to enable the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, to appoint one or more additional Port or Ports, Place or Places of entry, within this Province, and to appoint one or more Collector or Collectors at the same, respectively. Passed 10th March, 1807.

Whereas an Act passed in the forty second year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, “An Act to enable the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, to appoint one or more additional Port or Ports, Place or Places of Entry, within this Province, and to appoint one or more Collector or Collectors at the same, respectively,” which was to continue in force for three years, and no longer, is expired, and it is expedient that the same should be revived and continued.

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, “an Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled “ an Act to make more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province, “ and by the authority of the same. That the said Act shall from, and after the passing of this Act, be revived, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in full force and effect for two years, and no longer.
