

The Statutes of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America. Passed in the third session of the fourth provincial parliament of Upper Canada, met at York, on the second day of February, in the forty-seventh Year of the reign of our sovereign Lord George the Third (1807). York: John Cameron, 1809.

47 George III– Chapter 5

An Act to authorize Practitioners in the Law in this Province to take such a number of Clerks as is therein mentioned. Passed 10th March, 1807.

Whereas it is necessary to facilitate the education of youth in this Province to the profession of the law; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "an Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "an Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,"" and by the authority of the same; That from, and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for all and every person now authorised to practice the profession of the law in this Province, or who shall be hereafter duly authorised to practice as aforesaid, to take and have four Clerks at one time, and no more, any former law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.
