

The Statutes of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America. Passed in the third session of the fourth provincial parliament of Upper Canada, met at York, on the second day of February, in the forty-seventh Year of the reign of our sovereign Lord George the Third (1807). York: John Cameron, 1809.

47 George III— Chapter 8

An Act for applying certain sums of Money therein mentioned to make good certain Monies issued and advanced by his Majesty, through his Honor Mr. President Grant, in pursuance of two addresses. Passed 10th March, 1807.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Whereas in pursuance of several addresses of your Commons House of Assembly to his Honor Alexander Grant, Esquire, lately President administering the government of your Province of Upper Canada, bearing date the first and third of March one thousand eight hundred and six, last passed, in the forty sixth year of your Majesty's Reign, several sums of money, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and fifty-one pounds, two shillings and sixpence halfpenny, have been issued and advanced by your Majesty, through his Honor Mr. President Grant, to the Clerks and other officers of the two Houses of Parliament, for certain contingent expences attending the last Session of Parliament;—May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted,—and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "an Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "an Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,"" and by the authority of the same; That out of the surplus of any fund or funds subject to the disposition of the Parliament of this Province, now remaining in the hands of the Receiver General unappropriated, there shall be issued and applied the sum of one hundred and fifty-one pounds, two shillings and six pence halfpenny, to make good the said sum or money which has been issued and advanced in pursuance of the aforesaid addresses.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the due application of the said sum of money, pursuant to the direction of this Act shall be accounted for to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as his Majesty, his heirs and successors, shall direct.
