58 George III – Chapter 17 (Session 3)

An act to amend the laws now in force for granting wholesale licenses. (Passed 27th November, 1818.)

Whereas it is expedient to repeal part of and extend the provisions of an act passed in the fifty-eighth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "An act to impose a duty upon persons selling wine, brandy, and other spirituous liquors, by wholesale," be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council and assembly of the province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an act passed in the parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the fourth clause of the said recited act be, and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said recited act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit any person or persons from exposing for sale and vending in the usual manner, such liquors as they obtain from the distillation of grain raised upon their own farms, or to prohibit any person who shall have taken out, or who may hereafter take out, a license for the distillation of spirituous liquors, from selling such liquors, as he shall have distilled, without taking out the license required by this act.
