

C A P. XIII.

An Ordinance for the better regulation of Ferrymen, and others conveying persons for hire across the rivers and waters of this Province.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make more efficient provision for the regulation of Ferrymen, and persons conveying passengers for hire across the several rivers and waters of this Province:—Be it therefore Ordained and Enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada; by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council for the affairs of the said Province, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada ;” and it is hereby Ordained and Enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the fifteenth day of April next, after the passing of this Ordinance, no person shall act as a Ferryman, or shall convey or cause to be conveyed by any one in his or her service, any person across any river, stream, lake, or water within this Province, without having received a licence under the hand of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, for the time being, (or under the hand of some person by him duly authorised to that effect) to keep a Ferry across any such river, stream, lake, or other water, for a certain time, at a place, and within limits, to be designated in such licence; nor shall the person having received such licence, so act as a Ferryman, or so convey, or cause to be conveyed, any person for hire, at any place to which such licence shall not extend, or beyond the limits mentioned therein, under a penalty of five shillings currency, for each person so conveyed contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance; and such penalty shall be recoverable in a summary manner, before any one Justice of the Peace, on the oath of any credible witness, other than the informer, to whom such penalty shall go, and shall be paid over by such Justice of the Peace, who, if such penalty be not forthwith paid, shall levy the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, or, if sufficient goods and chattels belonging to him or her cannot be found to pay the whole amount of such penalty, may cause the offender to be arrested, and may commit him or her to the Common Gaol of the District, for a term not exceeding fourteen days, or until such penalty be paid in full.

No person to act as Ferryman without a Licence.

Nor to convey passengers beyond the limits assigned under a penalty of 5s. currency.
