So help me God.”

Any person knowingly swearing falsely shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury

XXI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that if any person shall knowingly swear falsely, as to any of the particulars of his alledged qualification, in pursuance of the preceding nineteenth section of this Ordinance, or if he shall knowingly swear falsely, in taking the Oath prescribed by the preceding twentieth section of this Ordinance, he shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and suffer the pains and penalties provided by law in cases of wilful and corrupt perjury.

No person elected a Councillor can serve for more than one Ward.

XXII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that if at any election of a councillor or councillors as aforesaid, any person shall be elected a councillor for more than one Ward of the said city, he shall, within three days after notice thereof, make his option, or on his default the Mayor of the said City shall declare for which one of the said Wards such person shall serve as councillor, and thereupon such person shall be held to have been elected in that Ward only, and in no other.

The Mayor and Aldermen elected, to continue members of the Council while in office.

XXIV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that the Mayor and Aldermen to be elected according to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall, during their respective offices, continue to be members of the Council of the said City, notwithstanding the provisions herein contained, by which the duration of the office of councillor is limited to a certain time.

Two Auditors to be elected annually by the Council.

XXV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that on the ninth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and in every succeeding year, the members of the said Council shall elect from persons qualified to be councillors, by a majority of votes, two persons who shall be and be called Auditors of the said City of Montreal ; and every such Auditor shall continue in office until the ninth day of December in the year following his election : Provided always, that in every such election of Auditors, no member of the said Council shall vote for more than one person to be such Auditor as aforesaid : and provided also, that no member of the said Council, nor the Clerk, nor the Mayor of the said City, shall be capable of being elected an Auditor as aforesaid.

Manner of proceeding to supply any extraordinary vacancy in the office of Councillor after the first election.

XXVI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that if any extraordinary vacancy shall occur in the office of councillor of the said City, after the first election of councillors to be had as aforesaid, the inhabitant householders and persons qualified to vote shall, on a day to be fixed by the Mayor, (such day not being later than ten days after such vacancy) elect from the persons qualified to be councillors, another person duly qualified to supply such vacancy ; and such election shall be held, and the voting and other proceedings be conducted, in the same manner, and subject to the same provisions, as are hereinbefore enacted with respect to the elections of councillors to be had as aforesaid ; and every person so elected shall hold such office until the period at which the person in the room of whom he shall have been chosen would, in the ordinary course, have gone out of office, when he shall go out of office, but shall be capable of immediate re-election, if then qualified as required by this Ordinance : Provided always, that no election shall take place, to supply any such such extraordinary vacancy, unless the number of councillors remaining after such vacancy, shall not exceed two-thirds of the whole number composing the Council.

The Mayor to be elected by the Council.

XXVII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and on the same day in every succeeding year, the said Council of the said City shall elect out of the Aldermen and Councillors of the said City, a fit person to be Mayor of the said city, who shall continue in office for one whole year; and in case a vacancy shall occur in the said office of Mayor by reason of any person who shall have been elected to that office not accepting the same, or by reason of his dying, or ceasing to hold the said office, the said Council of the said city shall, within ten days after such vacancy, elect out of the Aldermen and Councillors of the said city, another fit person to be Mayor thereof, for the remainder of the period for which the Mayor whose place is to be supplied, was to serve.

The Mayor and other members of the Council, and the Auditors and Assessors, to take the Oath of Allegiance, and also an Oath of Office and qualification.

XXVIII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that no person appointed or elected to be Mayor, Alderman, Councillor, Auditor, or Assessor as aforesaid, shall be capable of acting as such, except in administering the oaths hereinafter mentioned, until he shall have made and subscribed before any two or more of such Aldermen or Councillors (who are hereby respectively authorised and required to administer the said oaths to each other,) the oath of allegiance to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and also an oath in the words or to the effect following, that is to say—“ I, A. B., having been appointed or elected (as the case may be) Mayor, (or Alderman, Councillor, Auditor, or Assessor, as the case may be,) for the city of Montreal, do sincerely and solemnly swear, that I will faithfully fulfil the duties of the said office, according to the best of my judgment and ability; and that I am seized or possessed for my own use, of real or personal estate, or both, in the said city of Montreal, after the payment or deduction of my just debts, of the value of £ and that I have not fraudulently or collusively obtained the same, or a title to the same, for the purpose of qualifying myself to be appointed or elected (as the case may be) Mayor (Alderman, Councillor, Auditor, or Assessor, as the case may be) as aforesaid. So help me God.”

To pay a fine for non-acceptance of office.

XXIX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that every person duly qualified who shall be appointed or elected to the office of Alderman, Councillor, Auditor or Assessor of the said city, and every person, Alderman or Councillor, who shall be appointed or elected to the office of Mayor of the said city, shall accept the office to which he shall have been so appointed or elected, or shall in default thereof pay to

to the Treasurer of the said city, to and for the use of the said city, a fine as follows, that is to say, for non-acceptance of the office of Alderman or Councillor, a fine of Fifty pounds, for non-acceptance of the office of Auditor or Assessor, a fine of Fifty pounds, and for non-acceptance of the office of Mayor, a fine of One hundred pounds : and every such fine, if not duly paid, shall be levied under the authority of the Warrant of any Justice of the Peace, having jurisdiction within the said city, who is hereby required, on the application of the said Council of the said city, to issue the same, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so refusing to accept such office, with the reasonable charges of such distress : and every person so elected shall accept such office by taking the oath of allegiance, and making and subscribing the declaration hereinbefore mentioned, within four days after the notice of his election, and in default thereof shall be liable to pay the fine aforesaid, as for his non-acceptance of such office, and such office shall thereupon be deemed to be vacant, and shall be filled up by a new election, to be made in the manner herein before prescribed : Provided always, that no person disabled by lunacy or imbecility of mind, shall be liable to such fine as aforesaid ; and provided also, that every person so elected to any such office, who shall be above the age of sixty-five years, or who shall already have served such office, or paid the fine for not accepting such office, within five years next preceding the day on which he shall be so re-elected, shall be exempted from accepting or serving the same office, if he shall claim such exemption, within five days after notice of his election : And provided also, that no military, naval, or marine officer in Her Majesty's service, on full pay, nor the members of the Legislature of this Province, the members of the Executive Council, the Surveyor General, the Adjutant General of Militia, the Provincial Secretary, the Deputy Post Master General and his Deputies, Custom House Officers, the Sheriffs and Coroners, the clerks and commissioned officers of the Legislature and of the Executive Council, and School Masters, shall be held or bound to accept any such office as aforesaid, or any other office in the said city.

How the fines are to be levied if not duly paid.

And in default of taking the two preceding Oaths within a limited time, also, to pay a fine.

Persons not liable to fine.
