2 Victoria – Chapter 39 (Session 4)

An Ordinance to make provision for defraying the Civil Expenditure of the Provincial Government, for the year ending on the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for defraying the expenses of Her Majesty's Civil Government of this Province, and of the Administration of Justice therein, for the year ending on the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine:—Be it therefore Ordained and Enacted by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council for the affairs of the said Province, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada;"—And it is hereby Ordained and Enacted by the authority of the same, that from and out of any unappropriated monies which now are or may hereafter come into the hands of the Receiver General of this Province for the time being, there shall be paid and applied for defraying the expenses of the Administration of Justice, and of the support of the Civil Government of this Province, incurred, or to be incurred, during the year ending on the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, such sum or sums as together with the sums which may be in the hands of the Receiver General at the time of the passing of this Ordinance, at the disposal of the Crown, applicable to such purposes, shall amount to a sum not exceeding sixty-two thousand and one pounds, thirteen shillings and two pence sterling.

II. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of the monies appropriated by this Ordinance, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall direct.

J. COLBORNE.

Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in Special Council, under the Great Seal of the Province, at the Government House, in the City of Montreal, the Third day of April, in the Second year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.
