

Statutes of Upper-Canada, Passed in the second session of the fifth provincial parliament (1810). From The Provincial Statutes of Upper-Canada: Revised, Corrected, and Republished (York, R. C. Horne, 1818.)

50 George III – Chapter 3

An Act to extend the provisions of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the preservation of Salmon." (Passed 12th March, 1810.)

Whereas, the provisions of an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the preservation of Salmon," are found inadequate. Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That no person or persons shall, within the Home District of this Province, from and after the twenty-fifth day of October in each and every year hereafter, take, catch, or kill, or attempt to take, catch, or kill, in any manner whatever, any Salmon or Salmon Fry, until the first day of January in each succeeding year, nor in any time whatever, in any River or Creek in the said District, within one hundred yards of any Mill or Mill Dam already erected, or to be hereafter erected.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person or persons, convicted in the manner and form as prescribed by the above-mentioned Act, of any offence under this Act, shall suffer all the pains and penalties, fines and forfeitures, as by the abovementioned Act are inflicted upon offenders against the provision of the said Act, to be levied and recovered in like manner as by the said Act is directed.
