And be it further Enacted, That upon every Information made to any Two or more of the Judges of the Common Law Courts, the said Judges shall be and are hereby impowered and directed to hold a Special Sessions, and to try and determine the Matters therein contained, and for this Purpose to issue Process to the Provost Marshal, returnable at a short Day, to summon a Special Jury to pass on the Trial, as also to convene the Party complained of before the Court, to join Issue in the said Trial, and to hold him or them to Special Bail to abide by the Judgment and Determination of the said Special Court, which final Judgments and Determinations shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Trial had been prosecuted in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, at the usual and stated Terms thereof, any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it also further Enacted, That in Case it shall happen, that any of the Evidences for supporting any Information that may be so brought, are obliged to leave the Province before the Day appointed by the Special Sessions for the Trial of the Cause, that then and in that Case it shall be in the Power of any One of the said Judges, upon Notice given to the adverse Party to be present, to take the Depositions of the said Evidences in Writing, which Depositions, so taken and subscribed by the Judge and Witnesses, shall be admitted as Evidence to the Jury upon the Trial.
