

C A P. VII.

An ACT in further Amendment of an Act, made in the Thirty Third Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for establishing a Public Market at the Market House in Halifax and for regulating the same.

34. Geo. 2. c. 6.

¶ HEREAS the Liberty given to the People coming from the Country, to sell several Articles brought by them immediately by Hand, as is provided for by an Act intituled, An Act in Amendment of an Act, made in the Thirty Third Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the Establishing a Public Market at the Market House in Halifax, and for regulating the same," has been found beneficial both to such People, and to the Inhabitants of this Town; And whereas it is apprehended that if the Country People had further Liberty given them, to sell such their Provisions by Hand, at any Time, as well within Market Hours as without, it would still be more beneficial; Be it Enacted, by the Governor, Council and Assembly, That any Person coming from the Country with any Quantities of Dead Meat, Poultry and Pigs alive or dead, Roots, Greens, and other Vegetables, shall have free Liberty to sell and dispose of the same by Hand, in any of the Streets or Lanes of the Town of Halifax, to any of the Inhabitants of said Town (not being Butchers or Hucksters) at any Time, whether within Market Hours or without, and that such Persons shall have free Liberty to carry the same to the Market House, to be sold and disposed of there, without being put to any Expence for Stallage; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble.

Persons coming from the Country with dead Meat, &c. may sell the same at any Time to any Person (not being a Butcher or Huckster) and may sell the same in the Market House without any Expence for Stallage.

C A P. VIII.

An Act in further Addition to an Act made in the Thirty Second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for preventing Trespasses.

32. Geo. 2. c. 14.

¶ HEREAS many evil minded Persons have broke open Inclosures by pulling down Stone Walls, carrying off and destroying Fences, Gates, Bars, and other Materials for Fencing, to the great Prejudice of the Owners of such Inclosures; In order therefore to prevent and deter such Offenders, Be it Enacted by the Governor, Council and Assembly, That if any Person (not being the Proprietor, or having legal Authority) shall presume to throw down or remove any Fence of Stone Wall, or any Part thereof, inclosing any Preamble.

Any Person who shall throw down or remove any Fence of Stone Wall, or carry away any Rails, &c.
