

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the Sixth Day of June, 1770, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Third, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and there continued by several Prorogations until the Fifth Day of June, 1771, in the Eleventh Year of his said Majesty's Reign, being the Second Session of the Fifth General Assembly convened in the said Province.

11 George III – Chapter 4

An Act for altering the Times of holding the Courts of General-Sessions and Inferior Court of Common-Pleas at Annapolis, in the County of Annapolis.

Whereas on and by an Act, made in the seventh year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled an Act for regulating the times and places for holding the several Courts of Justice therein named, it is enacted, that the Courts of General-Sessions of the Peace, and Inferior Courts of Common-Pleas, shall be held for the county of Annapolis, in the town of Annapolis, on the third Tuesday of January, and on the second Tuesday of September; and whereas the holding the said courts at those times has been found inconvenient:

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council, and Assembly, that the said courts shall be held for the future, on the first Tuesday of April, and the first Tuesday of November in every year, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
