

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Tuesday the Twenty Eighth Day of May, 1765, in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and there continued by several Prorogations, to Thursday the 23d day of October, 1766, in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

6 George III – Chapter 8 (Session 2)

An Act for continuing an Act, intituled “An Act for reviving an Act made and passed in the 33d Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, ‘An Act for further prolonging a Resolution of the Governor and Council, revived and put in Force by the General Assembly in the 32d Year of His Majesty's Reign.’”

Whereas the law hereafter mentioned, hath by experience been found useful and beneficial, and no inconvenience having arose thereform, and that the same is near expiring, be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, council, and assembly, that an act for reviving an act made and passed in the thirty third year of his late Majesty's reign, intituled “An act for further prolonging a resolution of the governor and council, revived and put in force by the general assembly in the thirty second year of his Majesty's reign,” which was to continue in force for three years from the twenty eighth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and sixty three, and from thence to the end of the session of the general assembly then next following, shall be and the same is hereby further continued from the expiration thereof, until the twenty eighth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and sixty nine, and from thence to the end of the then next session of the general assembly.

Published according to law the 22d November, 1766.
