

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the fifth day of December 1785, in the Twenty Sixth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, and there continued by several Prorogations unto the Eighth Day of June, 1786, in the Twenty Sixth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, being the Second Session of the Sixth General Assembly convened in the said Province.

26 George III – Chapter 2

An Act for altering the Time appointed for holding the Inferior Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace in the County of Hants in the Spring of the Year.

Whereas the time for holding the courts of common pleas, and general sessions of the peace at Windsor, in the county of Hants on the last Tuesday of April, had been found inconvenient, it being the most busy season of the Inhabitants in fencing, ploughing and otherwise cultivating their lands.

I. Be it enacted by the governor, council and assembly, that the court of common pleas and general sessions of the peace, for the county of Hants, shall be annually held at Windsor in said county, on the first Tuesday of April, and last Tuesday of October; any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
