

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the fifth day of December 1785, in the Twenty Sixth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, and there continued by several Prorogations unto the Fifth Day of March, 1789, in the Twenty Ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, being the Fourth Session of the Sixth General Assembly convened in the said Province.

29 George III – Chapter 16

An Act for continuing in Force the several Acts herein after mentioned.

Whereas the several acts or laws of this province herein after mentioned are near expiring, and it is expedient that the same should be further continued.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, that such parts of an Act, intituled, "An Act for the summary Trial of Actions," and the acts in addition thereto, and amendment thereof as are not altered, changed or amended by any act or acts, passed this session of assembly; Also an Act, made in the twenty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act in Addition to, and Amendment of an Act made in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act to prevent Nuisances by Hedges, Wares [weirs] and other incumbrances obstructing the Passage of Fish in the Rivers in this Province;'" And also the Act made in the same year, intituled, "An Act to enable one or more Justices of the Peace to issue compulsory Process in the first instance in civil Causes, which are by Law triable before them." And every matter, clause and thing contained in all and every the before mentioned Acts, and also in such as have been made in explanation, amendment, addition or alteration, of any or either of the said Acts, shall be continued in force, and each and every of them are hereby continued in force until the 31st March, which will be in the year of our Lord, 1790, any thing in said Acts or either of them to the contrary notwithstanding.
