

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the Twentieth day of March, 1793, in the Thirty-Third Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Third, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. being the First Session of the Seventh General Assembly convened in the said Province. From Richard John Uniacke, The Statutes at Large passed in the General Assembly held in His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia: A complete index and abridgement of the whole. John Howe and Son, 1805.

33 George III – Chapter 7

An Act for extending to the several Towns of Windsor, Annapolis, and Lunenburg, the Provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the Reign of his present Majesty, entitled, “An Act for appointing Firewards, ascertaining their Duty, and for punishing Thefts and Disorders, at the Time of Fire;” and also, of the several Acts made in addition to, or amendment of, the said Act.

Whereas it is expedient and necessary, that the several provisions contained in the act, passed in the second year of the reign of his present Majesty, entitled, “An act for appointed firewards, ascertaining their duty, and for punishing thefts and disorders at the time of fire;” and also the several acts, made in the twenty-third, twenty-eighth, and thirtieth years, of his said Majesty's reign, in addition to, or amendment of, the said act, should be extended to the towns of Windsor, Annapolis and Lunenburg.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that from and after the publication hereof, the several matters, clauses and things, specified and contained in the said before recited acts, shall be, and the same are hereby extended to the several towns before mentioned. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the justices in their sessions, to assign the limits within which the inhabitants of the respective towns abovementioned, shall be liable to make good losses sustained, and recoverable, under the first of the above recited acts, as hereby extended; any thing, in the present act, to the contrary notwithstanding.
