

day of June, and first Tuesday of October ; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the said county, which will be held as aforesaid, on the first Tuesday of October next, and thereafter in each year at the October Sessions, the Grand Jury for said county shall nominate, and the Justices shall appoint, town-officers, and regulate the several townships of the said county, in the same manner as is by law directed, and has been heretofore accustomed to be done, at the first General Sessions of the Peace in each year for the said county. And the town-officers, for the several townships of said county, already appointed to serve the ensuing year, shall continue in office, and be bound to perform the duties of their respective offices, until others are appointed, and sworn in their stead, agreeable to the provisions of this Act.

Time of choosing town-officers, for King's County.

CAP. VII.

An ACT for regulating the Practice of Inoculating for the Small Pox.

This Act repealed by 41st Geo. 3d. cap. 2.

CAP. VIII.

An ACT for establishing a Public Market in the Town of Liverpool.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of Queen's County, at their next General Sessions of the Peace to be held after the publication hereof, to procure and fit up a proper place in the town of Liverpool, as a market-house, wherein a public market shall be held for the sale of all kinds of butcher's meat, poultry, alive or dead, fish, roots, greens, fruits, and other vegetables, on such days of the week, and during such hours, as the Justices, in their said Sessions, shall from time to time appoint : and it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices to appoint the first market day, for the opening and establishing of the said market, from which day, ever after, such market shall be deemed and taken to be a public market : and an Act, made in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act against forestallers and regrators, shall, from that day forth, be in full force and effect, in and within the said County of Queen's County.

Justices, in Session, for Queen's County, to provide a market in the town of Liverpool.

Regulation of said market.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, in their General Sessions, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to nominate and appoint a keeper of said market-house, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his office, and shall have the same power and authority as a Constable in all matters relating to keeping peace and order in the said market ; and the said Justices may, from time to time, at their pleasure, remove such keeper, and appoint another in his room, and shall regulate and fix the rate or rates of the stalls, or standings, in said market, and shall have full power and authority to make and publish such bye laws, from time to time, as may be necessary for the better regulating, governing, ruling and ordering, said market, when established : provided the same be not repugnant to the Laws of Great-Britain, or of this Province ; and it shall be lawful for the said Justices to enforce obedience to such bye laws, by imposing a fine, not exceeding the sum of ten shillings, for each and every offence, and, upon due conviction of any offender against such bye laws, before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county, it shall be lawful for such Justice to cause such fine to be levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels.

Appointment of a keeper to said market, and his power.

Fixing of the rates of the stalls, or standings.
