

day of June, and first Tuesday of October ; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the said county, which will be held as aforesaid, on the first Tuesday of October next, and thereafter in each year at the October Sessions, the Grand Jury for said county shall nominate, and the Justices shall appoint, town-officers, and regulate the several townships of the said county, in the same manner as is by law directed, and has been heretofore accustomed to be done, at the first General Sessions of the Peace in each year for the said county. And the town-officers, for the several townships of said county, already appointed to serve the ensuing year, shall continue in office, and be bound to perform the duties of their respective offices, until others are appointed, and sworn in their stead, agreeable to the provisions of this Act.

Time of choosing town-officers, for King's County.

CAP. VII.

An ACT for regulating the Practice of Inoculating for the Small Pox.

This Act repealed by 41st Geo. 3d. cap. 2.

CAP. VIII.

An ACT for establishing a Public Market in the Town of Liverpool.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of Queen's County, at their next General Sessions of the Peace to be held after the publication hereof, to procure and fit up a proper place in the town of Liverpool, as a market-house, wherein a public market shall be held for the sale of all kinds of butcher's meat, poultry, alive or dead, fish, roots, greens, fruits, and other vegetables, on such days of the week, and during such hours, as the Justices, in their said Sessions, shall from time to time appoint : and it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices to appoint the first market day, for the opening and establishing of the said market, from which day, ever after, such market shall be deemed and taken to be a public market : and an Act, made in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act against forestallers and regrators, shall, from that day forth, be in full force and effect, in and within the said County of Queen's County.

Justices, in Session, for Queen's County, to provide a market in the town of Liverpool.

Regulation of said market.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, in their General Sessions, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to nominate and appoint a keeper of said market-house, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his office, and shall have the same power and authority as a Constable in all matters relating to keeping peace and order in the said market ; and the said Justices may, from time to time, at their pleasure, remove such keeper, and appoint another in his room, and shall regulate and fix the rate or rates of the stalls, or standings, in said market, and shall have full power and authority to make and publish such bye laws, from time to time, as may be necessary for the better regulating, governing, ruling and ordering, said market, when established : provided the same be not repugnant to the Laws of Great-Britain, or of this Province ; and it shall be lawful for the said Justices to enforce obedience to such bye laws, by imposing a fine, not exceeding the sum of ten shillings, for each and every offence, and, upon due conviction of any offender against such bye laws, before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county, it shall be lawful for such Justice to cause such fine to be levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels.

Appointment of a keeper to said market, and his power.

Fixing of the rates of the stalls, or standings.

Persons offending against this Act.

Raising money for the building
a market-house:
rents, &c. to go to its repair.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the said county, from time to time, to raise, by presentment, in the usual form, so much money as may be necessary to build, repair and erect, the said market-house; and the rent of the stalls, and standings, in said market, together with all fines and forfeitures arising in pursuance of this Act, shall be applied to the keeping of said market-house in repair, and to no other use.

CAP. IX.

An ACT in amendment of an Act, passed in the Thirty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to determine upon a proper situation in the Town of Halifax, and to purchase Lots of Ground, if necessary, to erect a Public Building for the accommodation of the General Assembly, Court of Chancery, Supreme Court, and Court of Admiralty, and Public Offices, and for procuring Plans and Estimates for a Building hereafter to be erected for the residence of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the aforesaid Act it is provided, that there shall be erected a range of Public Buildings, for the sittings of the General Assembly, and Courts of Justice, and for the Public Offices, and also a Government-House, for accommodation of a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, and by the said Act it is intended, that the said range of Public Buildings shall be first erected: and whereas the present Government-House is in so ruinous a condition, as to be unfit for the residence of the Governor, or Commander in Chief of this Province, whereby it becomes more immediately necessary, to proceed to the erection of a house suitable for his reception and accommodation:

The erection of Public Buildings for sitting of General Assembly,
&c. to be deferred and a house for the accommodation of the Gov. nor built.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the erecting of the range of public buildings, for the sittings of the General Assembly and Courts of Justice, and of the Public Offices, be deferred, and that instead thereof, a suitable house be erected, with proper offices, and conveniences, on the lot of ground purchased for the said range of public buildings, or on the ground which may be purchased contiguous thereto, for the accommodation of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief of this Province, which house, when erected, shall be called the Government-House of the Province of Nova-Scotia, and shall be appropriated for the residence of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Province of Nova-Scotia, for the time being; and to no other use and purpose whatsoever.

Governor to appoint Commissioners, to superintend said building

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to nominate and appoint other Commissioners, in the room and place of such of the Commissioners nominated in the said Act, whose offices have become, or shall hereafter become vacant, by death, resignation or removal, and the persons so appointed, together with those appointed by the said Act, and continuing in their office, shall be Commissioners for building the said Government-House.

Materials collected for Public Building, to be used for Government-House.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to employ and use, in the building of the Government-House hereby authorized to be erected, such parts of the materials already contracted for, or purchased for, the intended range of public buildings, as they may find necessary, and to sell and dispose of such other parts of the said materials as may not be wanted for the said Government-House: and the monies, thence arising, shall be applied, by the said Commissioners, to and for the uses of the said Government House.
