39 George III – Chapter 6

An Act for altering the time of holding the Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, and for chusing Town Officers for King's County.

Whereas the time of holding the court of common pleas, and general sessions of the peace, for King's county, and for chusing town officers for the respective townships in said county, have been found inconvenient:

- I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that from and after the publication hereof, the said courts of common pleas, and the court of general sessions of the peace for the said county, shall be held, in each year at Horton, on the third Tuesday of June, and first Tuesday of October; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

- II. And be it further enacted, that at the court of general sessions of the peace for the said county, which will be held as aforesaid, on the first Tuesday of October next, and thereafter in each year at the October sessions, the grand jury for said county shall nominate, and the justices shall appoint, town-officers, and regulate the several townships of the said county, in the same manner as is by law directed, and has been heretofore accustomed to be done, at the first general sessions of the peace in each year for the said county. And the town-officers, for the several townships of said county, already appointed to serve the ensuing year, shall continue in office, and be bound to perform the duties of their respective offices, until others are appointed, and sworn in their stead, agreeable to the provisions of this act.
