44 George III – Chapter 10

An Act to alter the place of sitting of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and the Court of Sessions of the Peace, for the District of Colchester.

Whereas the said courts are now held at Onslow, and it is expedient that the same should be held, in future, at Truro, where the Supreme Court is, by law, directed to be held, and where a court-house has been erected for the purpose:

- I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, and it is hereby enacted, by the authority of the same, that the inferior court of common pleas, and the court of sessions of the peace, for the said district of Colchester, shall, hereafter, be held at Truro, in the said district, and not at Onslow, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
- II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes issued from either of the said courts, shall be returned at Truro, and sheriffs, constables, jurors, witnesses, parties, and all other persons who are required by any writ heretofore issued, to appear at Onslow, shall appear at Truro; and the same proceedings shall take place, as if the same writs and processes had been made returnable at Truro, and the persons, before named, required to appear there.
