

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the Twentieth day of February, Anno Domini, 1800, and continued by several Prorogations to Thursday the Twenty-Eighth day of November, 1805; in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. being the Sixth Session of the Eighth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

46 George III – Chapter 10

An Act in addition to, and amendment of, an Act, made in the fortieth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act, in further addition to, and for altering and amending, an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act, to amend, and reduce into one Act, the several Laws now in being relating to a Militia in this Province.'"

Whereas the rates and prices of dinners, breakfasts and suppers for soldiers established by the said act, are found insufficient, and the keepers of inns, taverns and houses, bound to furnish the same, are great losers thereby, in consequence of the encreased prices of the different articles they are bound to supply for such breakfasts, dinners and suppers, for soldiers:

- I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the price of a dinner, breakfast or supper, of good wholesome victuals, shall be at the rate of one shilling, respectively, for such dinner, breakfast or supper, to consist of good meat, bread and vegetables; and that the same shall be paid in the way and manner prescribed by the above in part recited act.
- II. And be it further enacted, that this act, shall be and continue in force until the thirty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and six, and no longer.
