

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on the Eighteenth day of November, 1806, and continued by several prorogations to Thursday the third day of December, 1807, in the Forty-eighth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the Second Session of the Ninth General Assembly, convened in the said Province. From Henry H. Cogswell, The Statutes at Large passed in the General Assembly held in His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia: from the Sixth Session of the Eighth General Assembly, to the Fifty-Sixth year of his Majesty's Reign. John Howe and Son, 1816.

48 George III – Chapter 3

An Act to revive, alter and continue, an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act for raising a Revenue to repair the Roads throughout the Province, by laying a Duty on Persons hereafter to be licensed to keep Public Houses or Shops for the retail of Spirituous Liquors, and for regulating such Public Houses and Shops;" also, the Act, passed in the fortieth year of his Majesty's reign in amendment of the above-recited Act; also, an Act, passed in the forty-first year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act in addition to, and in amendment of the above-recited Act;" and also the Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act in addition to, and in amendment of, the above-recited act."

Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the said acts, and every matter, and thing therein contained, except the fourteenth section, or clause, of the said first-mentioned act, so passed in the thirty-ninth year of his present Majesty's reign, shall be, and the same are hereby revived and continued in force for one year from the publication hereof, and no longer.

II. And be it further enacted, that the clerks of the license for the several counties and districts of this province, shall, once in every quarter, render a just account, and pay into the hands of the respective treasurers of such county or district, all monies and fines received by them by virtue of this act, deducting thereout, seven and a half per cent for their trouble.

III. And be it further enacted, that the treasurer of the county of Halifax, shall once every quarter pay to the commissioners appointed for the repairing, paving, and keeping in repair, the streets of Halifax, all monies received by him under and by virtue of the several acts hereby continued; and the said commissioners shall expend the same in manner and form following, that is to say – one fifth part thereof in repairing the road leading from Halifax to Sackville as far as the seven mile post; and one other fifth part thereof in repairing the road leading from the seven mile post to the bridge at Sackville; and the remaining three fifth parts thereof shall be by the said commissioners expended in making and repairing the roads, streets and lanes within the town of Halifax, and within ten miles thereof: and the said commissioners shall account for the same to the general assembly in the same manner they are by law required to account for the expenditure of all other monies.

48 George III – Chapter 3

IV. And be it further enacted, that all monies raised in the other counties and districts of this province, shall be appropriated and applied by the justices of the several counties or districts, by and with the advice of the grand juries of such counties or districts, to the making, opening and repairing, the public roads, making or repairing bridges, or establishing ferries throughout the several counties or districts within which such monies shall have been collected.
