CAP. XIV.

An ACT for erecting a Province House, on the ground where the old Government House now stands, for the meeting of the different Branches of the Legislature and other public purposes.

WHEREAS, the Building in which the Legislature is now convened, is decayed and unfit to be repaired, and it is necessary to provide a Provincial House for the accommodation of the General Assembly, and also for other public purposes: Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, That there shall be erected on the lot of ground where the Old Government House now stands, a Province House, which shall be formed of free stone, according to a plan and elevation made by Mr. John Merrick, and that the same shall be one hundred and forty feet in length, seventy feet in breadth, and forty-two feet in height, measuring from the top of the cellar walls, and that the said Province House shall be erected so as to have an equal distance at each end from George-street and Prince-street, and the west front thereof shall be ten feet from Granville-street, and no more. Province-House. Plan. Size. Scite.

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the said Province House shall contain a Council Chamber in one end, and an Assembly Room in the other end thereof, the length of each of which shall be the whole breadth of the building, and the breadth of each thirty-two feet; that there shall be a Room for holding the Supreme Court of Judicature, and other Provincial Courts, and also Rooms for all the different Provincial Public Offices. Inside plan.

III. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of the Honourable Sampson Salter Blowers, President of His Majesty's Council, the Honourable Edward Braddon Denton, Lewis Morris Wilkins, Esquire, Speaker of the House of Assembly, and Foster Hutchinson, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court, to make such other arrangements in the interior of the said Building, of the apartments intended for the purposes mentioned in this Act, as he shall deem fit, and to direct a plan of such further arrangements to be laid before the Commissioners for the said Province House, by which to regulate their conduct.
