CAP. XX.

An ACT to encourage the Fisheries of the Province, by granting a Bounty on the importation of Salt, and also for regulating and impofing a Duty on the exportation of the fame article.

X7 HEREAS, thewant of a regular importation of Salt, frequently causes that article to become scarce and dcar, and occasions an interruption to the fisheries, and at other times the market being overstocked, the importers suffer a loss, and are discouraged from continuing their importations ; and it is expedient to regulate the exportation of Salt, and to impose a duty on such Salt as shall hereafter be sold or exported to Foreigners or to Foreign States :

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Affembly, That whenever any Salt shall be imported into this Province after the first day of June, in the present year, from Europe, Africa, or the Wes-Indies, and the price on the fale thereof, at Auction, from the Bounty on Salt. ship in manner herein after mentioned, shall not amount to the average sum of fisteen shillings, currency, per hoghead, of common fine falt, and twenty shillings, currency, per hogshead, of coarse grained fishery falt, the owner, importer or confignce, of fuch falt, shall be entitled to claim and receive fuch bounty thereon, as in addition to the average price for which fuch falt shall have been sold, shall amount to the aforefaid price per hogshead of fifteen shillings for fine and twenty shillings for coarse falt. Provided always, That no bounty fo to be paid to any fuch owner, importer or confignee thereof, shall in any cafe exceed the rate of two shillings and fix-pence per hogshead on common fine, or three shillings and fix-pence per hogshead on coarfe grained fishery falt.

II. And be it further enacled, That when any ship or veffel, laden wholly or in part with falt, shall arrive in any port or place or discharge in this Province, and the owner, importer or confignee, shall be defirous to make fale thereof, and shall not be able to procure the prices herein before mentioned, for the fame, and shall intend to claim the bounty granted by this Act, fuch owner, importer or confignee, shall forthwith advertife the whole of the faid falt to be fold at public auction out of the ship, and shall fell the fame in lots of not more than five hogsheads in a lot.

III. And be it further enacted, That no perfon shall be entitled to claim for any fult fold, or to be fold, pursuant to the directions of this Act, at any out port in this Province, any greater or higher bounty than if the faid falt had been fold at the port of Halifax ; and all claims for any greater or higher bounty shall be reduced and computed according to the average fales of falt at the same time by auction at the port of Halifax; and if no fuch fale shall have taken place there at that time, then according to the average price of falt fold by auction at Halifax last before the date of the fale for which fuch bounty shall be claimed.

IV. And be it further enacled, That before any bounty shall be paid on any falt so fold as aforesaid, the perfon entitled to claim fuch bounty, shall procure from the auctioneer by whom fuch falt shall have been fold, an account of fales, fpecifying the leveral lots and parcels, the names of the purchasers, the quality or kind, and the prices of falt of the respective quantities fo fold, to which account the auctioneer shall annex and fubfcribe a certificate, under oath, that fach fale was made by him, and was a true, and fair fale of the quantities of falt, and for the prices in fuch account specified, and that the fame were the highest prices which could be procured at fuch auction: and all falt fo fold shall be meafured out of the ship by a fworn

Preamble.

Proviso.

Sale of Salt at Auction.

Salt sold at outports of the Province.

Certificate of Auctioncer.

Anno quinquagefimo quinto Georgii III. 1815.

fworn measurer, whose certificates of such admeasurement to the respective purchasers there. Certificate of of, shall also be annexed to the account of fales aforefaid ; and the faid vouchers shall be lodged in the office of the Secretary of the Province, to be produced thereafter to the General Certificates Affembly if required ; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieuten- where lodged ant-Governor or Commander in Chief, to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of the Pro- Bounty-how vince in favor of the faid owner, importer or confignee, of faid falt, for the amount paid. of the bounty he may be entitled to receive in manner herein before mentioned and limited.

V. And be it further enacted, That there shall be granted and paid to his Majefly, his heirs and fucceffors, for all falt which shall hereafter be exported from this Province, and shall be Exportation of entitled to, and shall have received the bounty hereby granted, the following rates and duties, that is to fay :- For and upon every hogshead of coarfe grained fishery falt, the fum of three shillings and fix pence; and for and upon every hogshead of common fine falt, the fum of two shillings and fix pence; to be paid to the Collector of Impost and Excise for the port or place from which fuch exportation shall be made, at the time of granting the permit herein after mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any perfon or perfons shall lade on board any fhip, veffel or craft, any falt to the amount of twenty hogsheads, he or they fhall apply for and obtain a permit for the lading fuch falt, from the Collector of Impost and Excise for fuch port or place where the fame shall be folladen; and if fuch falt is intended for exportation, to any other port in this Province, or to any other British port or place, such perfon or perfons to lading the fame, fhall also make the following oath, which the Collectors of Impost and Excile refpectively are hereby authorized to administer, to wit :

I, A. B. do fwear, that the , about to be shipped by me on board the whereof is mafter, is really and truly intended for , and that the fame is not intended to be, and shall not be, landed in any foreign port or place, or fold to any foreigner or foreigners.

And the faid Collectors respectively may administer the faid oath to any perfon or perfons who may lade falt on board any veffel or boat intended for the use of the fisheries of the Province, if there is any fuspicion of any fraudulent intent to difpose of the fame to foreigners for exportation.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the price of common fine falt shall exceed twenty fhillings per hoghead, and of coarfe grained fifhery falt shall exceed thirty shillings per hog fhead, it fhall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief Exportation of Sait prohibited. for the time being, by and with the advice and confent of his Majefty's Council, to 'prohibit by proclamation the exportation of falt to any foreign port or place, or the fale thereof to any foreigner or foreigners for the purpole of being used in any foreign fishery.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any perfon or perfons shall lade on board any ship, veffel, or boat, any falt, to the amount of twenty hogheads, or upwards, without first obtaining a permit for the fame, in manner aforefaid, and allo taking the oath herein before-men- Lading Salt for tioned, in fuch cafe wherein the fame is directed to be taken as aforefaid, or if any perfon or perfons shall fo fell or lade for exportation any fuch falt, after proclamation as aforefaid, all fuch falt fo fold or laden on board fuch ship, veffel, or boat, shall be feized and forfeited; and in cafe the fame shall have been actually exported, or cannot be got at to be feized, the perfon or perfons to exporting or felling the fame, shall forfeit and pay the fum of thirty shillings for each and every hoghead of coarfe grained fifhery falt, and the fum of twenty fhilsliggs for each and every hoghead of common fine fait, fo clandestinely fold or exported. IX. And

C. XX.

Measurer.

163

Salt.

Permission fe lade Salt for exportation.

exportation without permit. 164

Penalties how recovered.

Act.

C.XXI-XXII-XXIII. Anno quinquagefimo quinto Georgii III. 1815.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all penalties and forfeitures for any offence against this Act, shall be profecuted, levied, recovered and applied, in the manner and according to the directions prefcribed by the Act for Granting to his Majefty duties on wine, rum, and other diftilled fpirituous liquors, molasses, coffee and brown fugar.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and every matter, claufe and thing, therein Continuation of contained, fhall be and continue in force until the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fixteen, and no longer.

CAP. XXI.

Expired.

An ACT to continue in force the feveral Acts therein mentioned.

CAP. XXII.

· Executed.

An ACT for granting a Drawback on Wine, and diffilled Spirituous Liquors.

CAP. XXIII.

· Expired.

An ACT to regulate the Trade of this Province in Plaster of Paris or Gyplum, and to prevent contraband Trade ariling from the landing that article at or near the Boundary Line of the United States of America.