

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday the Sixth day of February, 1812, and continued by several Prorogations to Thursday the Ninth day of February, 1815, in the Fifty-fifth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the Fifth Session of the Tenth General Assembly, convened in the said Province. From Henry H. Cogswell, The Statutes at Large passed in the General Assembly held in His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia: from the Sixth Session of the Eighth General Assembly, to the Fifty-Sixth year of his Majesty's Reign. John Howe and Son, 1816.

55 George III – Chapter 10

An Act in addition to, and amendment of, an Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to impose and appropriate an additional Duty on all Wine hereafter to be imported into this Province."

Whereas the act, by the provisions and directions of which the additional duty imposed by the said act hereby amended, was to be levied, collected and paid, hath been suffered to expire:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the additional duty of six pence per gallon imposed by the said act hereby amended, on all wine to be imported into this province, shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, by the ways, means, methods, rules, provisions and directions, and under the same penalties, and by the collectors prescribed, mentioned, named and expressed, in and by an act, passed in the present session of the general assembly, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty certain duties on Wine, Brandy, Gin, Rum, and other Distilled Spirituous Liquors, Molasses, Coffee and Brown Sugar, for the support of his Majesty's Government, and for promoting the Agriculture, Commerce and Fisheries of this Province."
