

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday the Sixth day of February, 1812, and continued by several Prorogations to Thursday the Ninth day of February, 1815, in the Fifty-fifth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the Fifth Session of the Tenth General Assembly, convened in the said Province. From Henry H. Cogswell, The Statutes at Large passed in the General Assembly held in His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia: from the Sixth Session of the Eighth General Assembly, to the Fifty-Sixth year of his Majesty's Reign. John Howe and Son, 1816.

55 George III – Chapter 8

An Act in addition to, and amendment of an Act, passed in the twenty-second year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to restrain Hawkers and Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, not duly licenced to trade, travelling to and fro through the Country."

Whereas, the monies arising from the duty or rates, fines and forfeitures, imposed by the act, of which this is an amendment, are appropriated for the repair of roads and bridges throughout the province, under the direction of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, which is found inconvenient:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the monies arising by virtue of the said act, shall be paid into the treasury of the county or district in which the same is received, and shall be added to the fund raised in each county or district respectively, by the granting licences to retail spirituous liquors, and shall be disposed by the respective grand jurors, and court of general sessions accordingly.
