

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday the Eleventh day of February, 1819, in the Fifty-Ninth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the First Session of the Eleventh General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

59 George III – Chapter 6

An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act for regulating the exportation of Red or Smoked Herrings;" and in amendment of an Act, passed in the second year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act for regulating the exportation of Fish, and the assize of Barrels, Hoops, Boards, and all other kinds of Lumber, and for appointing Officers to survey the same."

Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the said act, and every matter, clause and thing, therein contained, except as herein after mentioned, be, and the same is hereby, continued in force, until the eighteenth day of March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and from thence to the end of the next session of the general assembly, and no longer.

II. And be it further enacted, that no shingles shall hereafter be delivered upon sale, in any part of the province, before the same shall have been viewed and surveyed by the surveyor; and, unless the said shingles shall be eighteen inches long at least four inches broad, and not less than three eighth parts of one inch thick, at the thick end, the same shall be forfeited; and the owner or owners of any shingles, which shall hereafter be delivered on sale before the same shall have been surveyed, or whose shingles upon survey shall not be passed by the surveyor, shall be subject to all the penalties and forfeitures imposed by the act of which this is an amendment.
