3 George IV – Chapter 16

An Act to extend an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act for the repairing, keeping in repair, cleansing and paving, the Streets in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax," to the Town of Windsor.

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the act, passed in the forty-first year of His late Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act for repairing, cleansing, and paving, the streets in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax, and for removing obstructions therein," and every matter, clause and thing, therein contained, save and except the fifth and tenth clauses thereof, be extended, and the same are hereby extended, to the Town of Windsor.

II. And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of His Majesty's council, to nominate and appoint three fit and proper persons, inhabitants of the town of Windsor, to be commissioners for the repairing, paving, and keeping in repair, the streets and lanes of the said town, and for ascertaining and removing obstructions therein; and, in case of the death, removal or refusal, of any of the commissioners so appointed, his or their places, from time to time, to be filled up by such person or persons, being inhabitants of the said town, and respectable freeholders there, as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, with the advice of His Majesty's council, shall nominate and appoint.

III. And be it further enacted, that the limits of the said town, subject to the controul and superintendance of the commissioners, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall extend from the island, called Smith's Island, to the northward and eastward as far as the bridge over the Trecothic Creek, on the main road leading out of the town of Windsor as far as the church; and on the southward and westward to the Falmouth Ferry.

IV. And be it further enacted, that, from and after the first day of May next, the power and authority now vested in the surveyors of highways, within the limits above described, in the said township, shall cease and determine, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
