II. And be it further enacted, that hereafter, when the driver of any carriage, sleigh or sled, on any of said streets or public roads, attempt to pass any other carriage, sleigh or sled, having its head in the same direction, such driver shall take care to pass on the right side of such carriage, sleigh or sled, so as to leave a sufficient way open on his left hand, for the carriage, sleigh or sled, which he is so about to pass; and all carriages, sleighs and sleds, at all times, both in the night and in the day, shall hereafter be obliged to keep on the side of the road, appointed and established by this act.

III. And be it further enacted, that, whenever any carriage, wagon, cart, truck, sleigh or sled, shall, at any time hereafter, stop, or be suffered to stand, loaded or unloaded, on any of the said streets of Halifax, or public road, every such carriage, wagon, cart, truck, sleigh or sled, shall, on no account, be placed nearer to the centre of such street or road than eighteen inches.

IV. And be it further enacted, that all carriages or sleighs, used for pleasure, on the streets, lanes, or within the peninsula of Halifax, and drawn by two horses, shall be harnessed in such a manner, that the horses draw side by side, and that when any such carriage or sleigh shall be drawn by three or more horses, the leader shall be guided by a rider or post-boy, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding. And the owner or driver of any carriage or sleigh, drawn otherwise than is herein before described, shall be liable to the fines and forfeitures imposed by an act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty George the Second, chapter eight, entitled, "An Act to prevent disorderly riding Horses and driving carriages, within the town of Halifax."

V. And be it further enacted, that every person licensed to retail spirituous liquors, in any house or shop, in the said town of Halifax, or any public road, shall, at all times hereafter, keep a printed copy of this act posted up in the most frequented and conspicuous place in his, her or their, house or shop.
