

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday, the Fourteenth Day of February, 1822, in the Third year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. and ended on the Third Day of March, in the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, being the First Session of the Twelfth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

3 George IV – Chapter 34

An Act to extend an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act for the repairing, keeping in repair, cleaning and paving, the Streets in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax," to the Towns of Liverpool and Lunenburg.

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that the act, passed in the forty-first year of His late Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act for repairing, cleaning and paving, the Streets in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax, and for removing obstructions therein," and every matter, clause and thing, therein, contained, save and except the first and tenth clause thereof, be extended, and the same are hereby extended, to the towns of Liverpool and Lunenburg.

II. And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of His Majesty's council, to nominate and appoint three fit and proper persons, inhabitants of the towns of Liverpool and Lunenburg, respectively to be commissioners for the repairing, paving, and keeping in repair, the streets and lanes of the said towns, and for ascertaining and removing obstructions therein; and in case of the death, removal or refusal, of any of the commissioners so appointed, his or their places from time to time to be filled up by such person or persons, being inhabitants of the said towns, and respectable freeholders there, as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, with the advice of His Majesty's council, shall nominate and appoint.

III. And be it further enacted, that the limits of the said town of Liverpool, subject to the control and superintendance of the commissioners so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall extend from Fort Point, by the western side of Liverpool harbour, to the bridge crossing the main road leading to the falls near Moore's tan yard; from thence South-West one mile, thence south-east one mile, thence north-east until it strikes the harbour of Liverpool, thence by the said harbour to Fort Point.

IV. And be it further enacted, that the limits of the said town of Lunenburg, subject to the control and superintendance of the commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, shall extend east to the garden lots, south-west to Burns's tan yard, west to Fener's tavern, and north to the bridge in the ear of the town of Lunenburg.

V. And be it further enacted, that, from and after the first day of May next, the power and authority now vested in the surveyors of highways, within the limits above described in the townships of Liverpool and Lunenburg respectively, shall cease and determine, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
