limited

VII. And be it further enacted, That, in future, no Commissioner shall be allowed to take or charge in his account, for his own services, any sum of money besides his Commission by law established, unless such Commissioner shall have been employed superintending day labourers, in which case he shall be allowed five shillings per day out of the money granted for each day that he shall be employed overseeing, provided he shall have at least ten labourers at work throughout the day.

Allowance to Labourers

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no labourer upon the Roads shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than four shillings for each day's work; and no labourer shall be paid for a days' work unless he shall have diligently laboured at least ten hours each day.

Commissioners to account upon
Oath

IX. And be it further enacted, That each and every Commissioner who shall expend Money by days' work shall, in addition to the receipts of the Persons by him employed, for all Monies paid, render an Account thereof upon Oath, in writing, in which such Commissioner shall state that the account is just and true, and that the Monies, by him expended, have been fairly and honestly applied to the purpose for which they were granted, and that he procured the best labour in his power to procure, and at the lowest rate of wages: which Oath any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer without fee or reward.

X,

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Commissioners hereafter to be appointed, to enter into and extend Contracts for the opening of new Roads, and improving such as have not been used for Wheel Carriages, and for erecting Bridges, until the thirty-first day of October. Contracts extended

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Court of General Session in the several Counties and Districts, shall have power to enquire into the expenditure of all sums of Money heretofore appropriated for the service of Roads and Bridges, which have not been accounted for as required by any former Laws, made for regulating the expenditure of Money on Roads and Bridges, and to certify the actual expenditure thereof according to the form prescribed by this Act. Courts of Sessions may enquire into expenditure of Road Money

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioner, hereafter to be appointed, under and in virtue of this Act, shall direct or superintend the expenditure of more than five hundred pounds, in any one year, in the making or repairing of Roads and Bridges aforesaid. Sum to be expended by any one Commissioner limited

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the money to be appropriated for the making and repairing of Roads and Bridges, shall be expended by days' work, and not by contract, unless for the building or repairing of Bridges, or the opening of new Roads, and there shall not be employed in any one day more than forty Labourers, to work under one Commissioner, and the wages of such persons shall be paid in Cash. Road Money to be expended by days' work

XIV. And be it further enacted, That for every ten Labourers, daily employed by any one Commissioner, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner to employ a fit and proper person as Foreman of Labourers, who shall work with the said Labourers, and take charge of such of them as are put under his directions; and shall work with, and superintend, the Labourers in the absence of the said Commissioner. Employment of a Foreman to Labourers

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Foreman of Labourers upon the Roads shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than five shillings for each day's work; and no Owner or Owners of any Team, consisting of a Cart with a suitable driver and two horses or four oxen, shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than ten shillings for each day, or of any team, consisting of a Cart, Driver, and one Horse, or two Oxen, shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than seven shillings and six pence, for each day employed on the said Roads; and no Foreman of Labourers, or Labourer, or Owner or Owners of any Team, shall be paid for a day's work, unless the said Foreman of Labourers, Labourer, or Team, shall have diligently laboured at least ten hours each day; and there shall be no further or other allowance for extra labour beyond the said ten hours each day. Allowance to Foreman of Labourers
Allowance for Teams

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case it be necessary or expedient for any of the said Commissioners to procure materials for the repair of the Roads, to which they may be appointed, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioner, where, from the absence or obstinacy of the owner or possessor of the soil, no agreement can be made with him, to enter with workmen, carts, carriages and horses, upon any unfenced and uncultivated lands, and therefrom to dig up, take and carry away, for the repair of the said Roads, any stones or gravel, and also therefrom to cut down, and carry away, trees and Materials for repair of Roads and bushes, for logs, poles and brushwood, to repair the said Roads, and the damage done thereby shall be appraised and ascertained by the judgment of three indifferent freeholders, to be nominated by the nearest Justice of the Peace, for that purpose, and the sum so ascertained shall be paid by the Commissioner to the Owner of the soil, if demanded within three months from such appraisement.

Actions against Commissioners

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Action shall be brought against either of the said Commissioners, so to be appointed as aforesaid, by reason of any thing done by him in the execution of his Office as Commissioner as aforesaid, he may plead the general issue thereto, and give this Act, and the special matter, in evidence on the trial of such Action.

Encroachments
or obstructions
upon Roads

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall examine the breadth of the Roads within their respective Districts, and when it shall appear that any encroachments or obstructions have been made, put or placed, in or upon the same, the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall, forthwith, give notice to the Owner or Occupier of the Land adjoining the said Road, that unless the said Road shall be opened and cleared to its proper breadth within thirty days, the person or persons who shall have erected or continued the obstruction, will be prosecuted as the Law directs.

Return of Encroachments to Courts of Sessions

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall make an accurate return of the breadth of all such Roads, and of the incumbrances thereon, to His Majesty's Supreme Court, or Court of General Sessions of the Peace, for the County or District where the offence shall have been committed, at its next sitting, after the appointment of such Commissioner or Commissioners, in order that such proceedings may be thereupon had, as to the said Court shall be deemed necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of the Act relating to Highways, Roads and Bridges, and for preventing Nuisances.

Continuation of Act

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force for three years, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.
