

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Tuesday, the Fifteenth day of February, 1825, in the Sixth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the Fifth Session of the Twelfth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

6 George IV – Chapter 28

An Act to alter and continue the several Acts to provide for the greater security of the Province, by a better regulation of the Militia, and to repeal the Militia Laws now in force.

Be it enacted by the President, Council and Assembly, that an act, made and passed in the first year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to provide for the greater security of this Province, by a better regulation of the Militia, and to repeal the Militia Laws now in force;" and also, an act, passed in the fourth year of His said Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to alter and continue an Act to provide for the greater security of this Province by a better regulation of the Militia, and to repeal the Militia Laws now in force," and every matter, clause and thing, in in the said acts contained, except so far as they are hereby altered, shall be continued, and the same are hereby continued, for one year, and from thence to the end of the next session of the general assembly.

II. And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by any general order for that purpose, by him made, to dispense with one or more of the battalion or company meetings, to be held under the act hereby continued, if he shall deem it proper so to do.
