

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Wednesday, the First day of February, 1826, in the Seventh year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the Sixth Session of the Twelfth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

7 George IV – Chapter 34

An Act to provide for the erection and support of a Light-House on Mauger's Beach, and to regulate the Light-Duties hereafter to be paid.

Whereas, it has been deemed expedient, for the protection of ships and vessels entering the harbour of Halifax, that a Light-House should be placed on the beach commonly called Mauger's Beach –

- I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, to erect, or cause to be erected, on the said beach, a good and sufficient light-house for the aforesaid purpose, provided the cost of the same do not exceed the sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds.
- II. And be it further enacted, that all the provisions, clauses and regulations, mentioned and contained in any act or acts now in force, which regulate the light-houses of the province, and provide for collecting the light-duties, and compelling the payment thereof, and regulating the expenditure of the monies so collected, are hereby extended and made applicable to the said light-house, whenever the same shall be established as aforesaid.
- III. And be it further enacted, that, from and after the publication of this act, no ship or vessel whatsoever shall be liable to pay any further light-duty than four pence currency per ton, any act to the contrary notwithstanding.
